

PATRIOTIC T

UGHES IN THE LEAD.

SCAMONDEATH.

The Fourth Celebrated with the Wigwam.

Bourke Cockran and His Make Spe

Letters Read from Ex-Pres land, Gov. Hill and

For 100 years the Tammany Hall has been celebrating in good, old-fashioned style its annual recurrence of Independence Day.

The front of the wigwam is decked with the National colors.

Among these were many of those Summer brightness to the dark gue shines of the hall.

Bayne's Sixty-ninth Regt course popular and patri hour, and then, at 10 o'clock

Wiskin John D. Newman

W. H. Dobbs, the Sachem

Tammany filed into the h seats upon the platform the occasion.

Seated in the front ranks

Schems about their ne

Grant, Chamberlain Crok of Public Works Gilroy,

Cockran, Recorder Smyth

Martin.

It was the celebration of the establishment of the Ta and a programme of unus been prepared.

True, the hundredth bi century occurred last May, but that time was interfered wi nial celebration of the in first President, and it was postpone it until to-day.

Grand Sachem Flack on ries with a next little speech out of the Tammany

"All Hail This Gloriou

expressly for the occasio

This was followed by immortal declaration of his forefathers of the Republic

Jacob A. Cantor was the rea

More music succeeded,

"Love Then" being rende quartet, and Mrs. C. H. Clai

F. Anderson singing a duet, Song "so well that they had encore.

Then began the long ta

gressman W. Bourke Cock stump.

His address was histori no, the dry history.

The oratorical pyrotechnic gifted lawyer is noted we played in the statement of and were as effective in elici his most fervid appeal for a ciple.

The causes which led to th the Republic were set forth in and a comparison of our G monarchs—a most scathing the latter—was followed by a Tammany Society, its object pose, and the principles of the Republic, the ortho the philosopher has been ity of the human race assur in its broadest sense, assured

Of the cry that there is di tocracy, Mr. Cockran said gestion of such a danger is for it is an assurance that awakening to the sense of are ready to and can cope w it, for photo-vote cannot ob people's consent.

The people have met at ev every danger; they have so ent problem, and will find solution.

United States Senator J succeeded Mr. Cockran as was a most excellent elec tratic party.

He said that this celebra tion of Tammany and of the also a celebration of the De for the country and no history apart.

Its opponents are surpris survived so many vicissi despite reverses, it is more easily stronger, more deter defiant and more than e

No party will ever will survive and triumph or

And this because it truly people in their sentiments.

Senator Eustis conclude

The Democratic party, al the last election, looks to the lute confidence. Its convic coarse: its purposes and aims frankness.

It advocates, as in the pa will promote the interests of record is maintained by either chase of the Presidency.

It seems to obtain money corrupting the public. It is sectional animosities to sus relics in a remitted en brings the people in closer fr terinity. It appeals to the smallest of us. Even though right and interests, it will when our government shall that dire day shall come the will be written by weeping Lib fana, communis morte."

After more music, repli were read by Sachem Gilroy

Among those who express inclination to be present at Cleveland, Gen. Wm. L.

Governors of Maryland,

Carolina, Tennessee, Louis and Oregon, and several cou and Congressmen.

More music and short talk of West Virginia, and Gov and, and many others were

The literary exercises over thirsty adjourned to "the most appetizing spread of sa , was washed down by a bottles looking suspicious which the various vintage usually stored.

This was for the gene special spread for invited high in council was prepar in another part of the wise supply of "laughing wa united.

OTHER POLITICAL CE

Other celebrations of the had this evening by the

of Harlem, Senator Cante

Club and the Powhatan

District.

The exercises of these cl for evening, so as not to grand celebration at Tammany.

The German Democrats

second Assembly held a glorious time celebrating their adopted land at their and 309 East Seventy-eighth district.

She Jumped to Avoid a廷

Police Officer, this morning held at 10 o'clock, for exami on the charge of assaulting his wife, knocked her down with a chair last night, and in her efforts to escape she jumped over a shed ten feet below, fracturing her right ankle and receiving severe in juries.

The Purchase of "Re

The Turf, Field and Farm

Recreation," the well-known m of the higher literature of n dicted by Charles Hallock, editor of Friends and Stran, who won his literary spurs as Herty Is Pressing Him Hard in the Nine-Day Race.

Six Men Start in the Fifth Day's Tramp.

Ilyan's Involuntary Bath in the Miniature Niagara.

EVENING WORLD.

AT BEACH PALACE, CONY ISLAND, July 4.—

There were still a round dozen men in the day go-as-you-please when "Happy"

Smith rang his starting bell at 11 o'clock, some of them had already made good ords on the sawdust track.

Jack Hughes ran twelve hours without a ak yesterday, covering seventy and one-half the greatest distance ever run on the th day in this style of racing.

Smith was out of sorts and ran only fifty-three yards.